Cartographers

Cartographers

Residents Graduate From BYU

Wave 11 Oct 1984

PROVO—Four Wasatch County residents were among 2,241 graduates to receive their diplomas in the late August ceremony at Brigham Young University's commencement exercises in Provo.

Those graduating from BYU were Joyce M. Dudley, with an Associates in Nursing; Cecil W. Black with a Masters in Community Education Administration; Ray W. Rasband with a Bachelor of Arts in History; Ronald B. Carlile of Midway graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Cartography.